

BLOOD TRANSFUSION ARTEFACT RECORD
NUMBER	AA-061
ITEM / TITLE	ENGLISH NATIONAL BLOOD TRANSFUSION SERVICE BLOOD DONOR (CERTIFICATE) CARDS
PHYSICAL DESCRIPTION	Nine blue folded blood donor cards stamped in gold on the front with the double-heart with crown emblem and National Blood Transfusion Service – inside each one is a coloured blood group label and a blank 'Certificate of Blood Donation' sticker label.
OTHER INFORMATION	On the inside of each of the nine cards is a coloured blood group label, comprising A RH POSITIVE; B RH POSITIVE; O RH POSITIVE; AB RH POSITIVE (black writing on yellow, pink, blue and white backgrounds respectively), and A RH NEGATIVE; B RH NEGATIVE; O RH NEGATIVE; AB RH NEGATIVE (red writing with a red bar on yellow, pink, blue and white backgrounds respectively). An 'RH POSITIVE DONOR BUT RH NEGATIVE RECIPIENT' label (black writing on a buff coloured background). Reference number: N.B.T.S (ABO group)N Additional information includes: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <li>• Check group before transfusion</li> <li>• Please keep this card carefully and bring it with you each time you attend a session</li> <li>• Any notification of change of address should be accompanied by this card</li> </ul> Each card has the stamped signature of: L.A. Derrick-Tovey (i.e. who was the Medical Director at the Regional Transfusion Centre, Leeds). On the right-hand side is a blank (uncompleted) 'Certificate of Blood donation'.

Note: Additional photograph on the next page

